

Nov. 14, 2011, Daily News

Monday, 14 November 2011

Last Updated Monday, 14 November 2011

Great start for DT's Entertain via Satellite

Broadband TV News

The hybrid service offers German customers access to a combined DTH and IPTV service. "And I can tell you that this trend is still impacted – still goes up," according to Obermann. "The trouble currently is we're not having enough devices, ...

Copaco enters the IPTV sector

Rapid tv news

Paraguayan state-owned operator Copaco will launch its long-planned IPTV service in December 2011, available as part of a triple-play product suite, also including fixed telephony and broadband internet access. The new offering, which will be offered ...

New digital cable TV operator Nilamas to unveil all tomorrow

Malaysia Star

Astro may also not be the only player that Nilamas has to slug it out with, as content is now even pushed through by traditional telecom companies, which also are owners of fibre optic and wireless networks, and Internet protocol television (IPTV) ...

Over half of UK broadband users interested in next-gen IPTV services

IPTV News

More than half (57%) of UK broadband users are interested in the new generation of IPTV services due to launch next year, according to a new survey from ISPreview. The poll of 590 broadband users revealed that 28% of respondents have "average" interest ...

Broadband IPTV demand on the rise

uSwitch.com (Tech)

Research conducted by ISPreview.co.uk found that 57 per cent of survey respondents are potential IPTV customers. Of the 570 survey respondents, 29.3 per cent said they were 'very interested' and 28.1 per cent claimed to have an 'average interest'. ... Portugal Telecom passes 1mn pay-TV subs

IPTV News

Portugal Telecom has reached 1mn subscribers for its pay-TV service 'Meo' (delivered via IPTV, satellite and mobile), a little under four years after its launch. Meo customers now represent around 93% of the telco's fixed broadband base, and 38% of its ...

UK Broadband IPTV Services Need Good Content and Low Prices

Prfire (press release)

A new ISPreview.co.uk survey of 590 broadband users in the United Kingdom (*) has revealed that 57% are "interested" (28% have "average" interest and 29% were "very" interested) in the new generation of broadband ISP based internet television (IPTV) ... Telekom Austria sees fixed revenues decline

IPTV News

Telekom Austria had reached a little over 186000 subscribers for its IPTV service 'A1TV' by the end of the third quarter of this year, up 39% from one year previously but still underwhelming considering it launched the service in 2007. ...

Alca-Lu picked for major Chinese fibre project

IPTV News

The deployment will enable China Unicom to offer speeds of up to 100 Mbps, enabling the delivery of a wide range of consumer and business services, including IPTV, video-on-demand and voice-over-IP.

