Nov. 18, 2011, Daily News

Friday, 18 November 2011
Last Updated Friday, 18 November 2011

TiVUS Launches Ku-band Hotel Satellite Feed
Sacramento Bee
"This new partnership replaces our former agreement with EchoStar®, who announced in August it was to electively begin shutting down its satellite-based IPTV delivery service, ViP-TV. By the end of September, the system was completely shut-down. ...

Sony's OTT IPTV service
Screen Africa
The Wall Street Journal reports that Japanese company Sony plans to launch a new over the top (OTT) IPTV service to compete with cable and satellite TV services. Sony is reportedly negotiating with several media companies regarding rights to make their ...

Women in Technology
BBC News (blog)
The event had demos from various techie departments of the Beeb, some talks from women in senior positions in FM such as Victoria Jaye (Head of IPTV and TV ...

TVNZ chief quits for Telstra role
C21Media
He'll be responsible for operations including Telstra's IPTV business and its ... These include a 50% stake in Foxtel, the Aussie pay-TV and IPTV provider ...

Telstra to invest AUD 100mn in media infrastructure upgrade
IPTV News
... division called Telstra Digital Media, covering a range of assets including Sensis, BigPond, Trading Post, IPTV, FOXTEL and other content arrangements. ...

More subs, higher profit for Multimedia
Broadband TV News - Chris Dziadul
The Polish cable operator Multimedia Polska ended the third quarter with almost 183000 subscribers to its digital cable and IPTV services, or 44% more than ...

Russia's MegaFon unit buys 2 telecom cos in Chuvash Republic
PRIME-TASS (subscription)
Specifically, NetByNet has acquired companies Internet Tsentr and Svyazinform, both providing broadband Internet access and TV via Internet Protocol (IPTV) ...

Cisco to Enter Cable Digitization in India
Siliconindia.com
... with 60000 local cable operators (LCOs), alongside 7 satellite television operators and many IPTV providers- (apart from the terrestrial services of DD, ...