

Nov. 27, 2011, Daily News

Sunday, 27 November 2011

Last Updated Sunday, 27 November 2011

Verizon ordered to pay $11M per month to keep FiOS VOD running

Rapid tv news - Michelle Clancy

... to pay $11 million+ in royalties per month to ActiveVideo in order to continue providing FiOS IPTV subscribers with video on demand (VOD) services. ...

Aksh Optifibre Makes An Open Offer To Buyback 20% Stake; Failure Of IPTV In India

MediaNama.com

By Anupam Saxena on Nov 28th, 2011 | Post a Comment The promoters of IPTV and VoIP company Aksh Optifibre have made an open offer to buy back 31325227 shares, representing 20% of the total diluted paid up capital at a value of Rs 7 per share. ...

Swiss Sunrise prepares IPTV launch

Broadband TV News

Sunrise, owned by private equity group CVC, is preparing to launch a full-fledged IPTV service early next year. Sunrise is the number two mobile operator in Switzerland and the number three broadband provider, with 366000 customers on September 30, ...

Sunrise plans IPTV platform

Rapid tv news

Swiss telco Sunrise wants to launch an IPTV platform in early 2012. The internal friendly user tests have commenced in October 2011, the company announced in Zurich. The product, through which Sunrise will develop into a quadruple play provider for ...

BBC forays into Taiwan

‎OnScreenAsia

... Telecom's (CHT) IPTV platform, MOD. This distribution deal makes the channels available to more than a million of the platform's subscriber households. ...

First Cricket Test of this Summer sees Greg Chappell managing the ...

‎ChristianToday - Mark Tronson

The 'Basil Sellers Australian Missionary News IPTV' (Internet Protocol Television) is a ministry of Well-Being Australia. I interviewed Greg Chappell on the ...

IPTV drives growth in Russia set-top box sales

Telecompaper (subscription)

Sales of satellite, cable and IPTV set-top boxes, in units, are expected to total 2.5 million this year, reports Prime-Tass from a study by J'son & Partners ...