

Dec. 6, 2011, Daily News

Tuesday, 06 December 2011

Last Updated Tuesday, 06 December 2011

Amino back in black as it ships 4M STBs

Rapid tv news

After reporting a £900000 loss for the 2010 financial year, the IPTV/OTT solution provider expects operational improvements and continued traction in the emerging over the top arena to deliver a profit for 2011 that it claims will be marginally ahead ...

Amino ships 4mn set-tops

IPTV News

The milestone unit was an M540 PVR IPTV set-top box, shipped to Netherlands-based fibre network operator Glashart Media, which has been a customer of Amino's for the past six years. Amino's Aminet range of IP set-top boxes have been deployed to over ...

Appy Days: Optus MeTV Hits iPhone

Smart Office

The Optus version of the FetchTV app, announced today, puts control of the IPTV service into your hands, literally. Optus MeTV with fetch app, for iPhone, iPad and Android (coming 2012) is very handy when managing the Optus MeTV account, ... Anevia Announces New WebTV Feature for IPTV Head-End Products

MarketWatch (press release)

PARIS, FRANCE, Dec 06, 2011 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX) -- Anevia, a leader in video streaming solutions and service infrastructure for live TV and video on demand (VOD), today announced a new WebTV feature for its Flamingo range of IPTV head-end products. ...

iiNet Takes Celeno "Down Under" to Support In-Home Wi-Fi for its IPTV Service

MarketWatch (press release)

By entering the Australian market with iiNet, Celeno has broadened its technology reach across a range of wireless solutions spanning a range of market sectors including cable, satellite and, as in the case of iiNet,

Finally, DTH operators taking the lead in offering IPTV-like services in India

Real Time News, India

After a string of failures to successfully launch IPTV and true video-on-demand services by telecom players, it seems to be the DTH operators who are taking the lead in India. Tata Sky, one of India's biggest DTH operators, announced it had launched a ...

FiOS welcomes Spanish quintuplet

C21Media

US telco Verizon is adding another five Spanish-language channels to the line-up of its FiOS IPTV service. AlternaTV, a division of Latin American satcaster SatMex, has secured carriage for a portfolio that spans an array of genres. ...

Deutsche Telekom Chooses Celeno to Support "Entertain" IPTV Service in Germany

MarketWatch (press release)

The Speedport W 102 Bridge will enable Deutsche Telekom to distribute its popular "Entertain" IPTV service wirelessly throughout the home to consumers in Germany. With around 140 TV channels, 15000 titles, 2500 national and international radio stations ...

IPTV accounts for 4% of Russian pay-TV base

IPTV News

IPTV is described as having "great opportunities" for interactive services, with operators trying to expand their subscriber base while maintaining high prices for access to content. The number of Russian IPTV subscribers had reached an estimated ...

New Xbox Dashboard Combines TV & Gaming Entertainment ReelSEO Online Video News

I have been writing about all the big changes with the Xbox for some time now in regards to IPTV and this is the big day, the day when it all launches (though there does appear to be a slight delay in the launch). I have been in the beta for new ...