

Jan 3, 2012, Daily News

Tuesday, 03 January 2012

Last Updated Tuesday, 03 January 2012

NetUP launches Android-based TV set for IPTV access

Telecompaper (subscription)

IPTV equipment provider NetUP is now ready to offer an IPTV service with no IP set-top boxes needed. The service includes a TV set that contains Android-based IP STB integrated. The offer mainly targets hotels and residences. ...

Research and Markets: Hong Kong - Telecoms, Mobile, Broadband and Forecasts ...

SYS-CON Media (press release)

The report (17th Edition) covers trends and developments in telecommunications, mobile, Internet, broadband, and converging media including VoIP and IPTV developments. Subjects include: For those needing high level objective analysis on Hong Kong, ...

AT&T brings MSG HD content to Conn. U-verse customers

FierceTelecom

AT&T's deal comes only two weeks after Cablevision (NYSE: CVC) failed to block the sports network's HD feeds from getting into the hands of telco-based IPTV providers, Multichannel News reports. In mid-December, the US Court of Appeals for the Second ...

MTG rebrands movie channel, plans new launches

DigitalTVEurope.net

All channels will be available on the Viasat satellite pay TV platform and will also be distributed via IPTV and cable TV networks with which Viasat has agreements. MTG said Viasat Film will show five exclusive premieres a week. ...

Super TV adds three new channels

Telecompaper (subscription)

Bosnian IPTV platform Super TV has added three new channels to its range from the New Year. Minimax is a children's channel dubbed into the Serbian language ...

Research and Markets: Hong Kong - Telecoms, Mobile, Broadband and ...

SYS-CON Media (press release)

The report (17th Edition) covers trends and developments in telecommunications, mobile, Internet, broadband, and converging media including VoIP and IPTV ...

Batelco rolls out triple-play network

Global Telecoms Business

Ahmed Al Janahi, general manager of media relations at Batelco, said: "We are successfully delivering triple play — voice, broadband and IPTV — in areas ...

AT&T Adds MSG HD And MSG+ HD For U-verse TV Customers in Connecticut

NewDesignWorld (press release)

AT&T U-verse TV is the fastest growing TV service in the country and the only 100 percent Internet Protocol-based television (IPTV) service offered by a ...