

Jan 8, 2012, Daily News

Sunday, 08 January 2012

Last Updated Monday, 09 January 2012

TM adds maths, science content to HyppTV

Telecompaper (subscription)

Telekom Malaysia is adding 'B-Smart TV' to its IPTV offer, HyppTV. B-Smart TV is an interactive educational content offering which focuses on maths and scie ...

Movistar Chile to launch IPTV service in March

Telecompaper (subscription)

Movistar will launch IPTV services in Chile in March. The service will be provided in combination with the operator's Banda Ancha Premium service with ...

CCTV launches three Chinese-language channels on Freeview HD

MediaMughals

Vision IPTV has announced the launch of the first dedicated Chinese language ... Vision IPTV's online video platform supports the latest FreeviewHD enabled ...

Chello channels join T-Home

Broadband TV News

The Chello Central Europe kids channel Megamax has secured carriage on Magyar Telekom's digital cable, satellite and IPTV platforms, which operate under the ...

Canal Plus wants to pull four channels from IPTV operators

Telecompaper (subscription)

French pay TV group Canal Plus has informed IPTV operators that it wants to withdraw four channels on 4 April, writes Univers Freebox. ...

New TV arm clicks digital signage

Fiji Times

Locally-owned Mai TV has launched Click, its internet protocol solutions arm offering IPTV (internet protocol television), digital signage, power solutions, and indoor and outdoor screens and monitors. Company business development executive Pravendra ...

Copaco launches IPTV service in Paraguay

Rapid tv news

IPTV is being implemented successfully in the whole of the Latin American continent and the last implementation comes in Paraguay where Copaco is about to ...

Research and Markets Adds Report: Hong Kong - Telecoms, Mobile ...

Techzone360

The report (17th Edition) covers trends and developments in telecommunications, mobile, Internet, broadband, and converging media including VoIP and IPTV ...