

Jan 14, 2012, Daily News

Saturday, 14 January 2012

Last Updated Saturday, 14 January 2012

Russia a "major success story" as worldwide IPTV subs pass 54mn

IPTV News

The number of IPTV subscribers globally increased 6.06% in the third quarter of 2011 to reach 54.4mn, according to new figures prepared by Point Topic for the Broadband Forum. IPTV continues to grow steadily, generating "significant" additional ...

Home Networks Get New Options

PCWorld

By Megan Geuss, PCWorld Your IPTV needs an Internet connection. But your living room is too far from your router to run an Ethernet cable, so what do you do? Or perhaps you have an office in the basement and need to transmit large files to the desktop ...

Now Watch Costa Rican Television On your iPhone Or Android

Inside Costa Rica

By way of IPTV the App brings Costa Rica's local television channels to a handheld unit connect to the internet, either by way of WiFi or with a ...

IPTV a relatively new business for TM

Malaysia Star

Telekom Malaysia Bhd's (TM) venture into the IPTV market has not come easy, it is a new area of business, and though it has hired some experienced people, ...

Stingray Digital Partners With EMI Music In Digital Worldwide ...

Billboard.biz

The content will appear on Stingray's multiple platforms: digital cable, Internet Protocol television (IPTV) and mobile. Some 40 million customers will have ...

Global broadband subscribers inch up to 600 million

GigaOm

13, 2012, 9:13am PT 2 Comments At the end of Q3 there were a total of 54.4 million IPTV subscribers, up 6.06 percent over the previous quarter. ...

Global broadband subs surge

Telecoms.com (blog)

There were an estimated 54.4 million IPTV subscribers worldwide by the end of ... Asia was once again the fastest-growing region for IPTV, but European ...