

Jan 20, 2012, Daily News

Friday, 20 January 2012

Last Updated Saturday, 21 January 2012

Two Way partners with LG Electronics Australia to roll out TV ...

Proactive Investors Australia

Two Way (ASX: TTV) has entered an agreement with smart TV manufacturer LG Electronics Australia to distribute Two Way's IPTV wagering applications on the ...

IPTV to be 60% of TV subscriptions by 2016

The Wire Report (subscription)

A new report by UK firm Ovum Consulting last week predicted that Internet protocol television (IPTV) will account for 60 per cent of telco TV revenues by ...

Reliance readying for 4G launch in second half of 2012, focus on ...

AndroidOS.in

As company does not have license of start telephony services; data cards, tablets and IPTV are some of the only options that can be used by company to ...

ZooVision Enters Smart Start Evaluation Agreement with Raystream(TM) Inc.

MarketWatch (press release)

DALLAS, Jan 20, 2012 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Raystream Inc. /quotes/zigman/6270177 RAYS -9.56% , a global High Definition video compression services company, is entering a 30-day evaluation period with IPTV video streaming company, ZooVision, ...

France 24 received into 235 million homes

Rapid tv news

Cable, IPTV/ADSL and Free DTT (in French Overseas Territories, Italy, Denmark, US) respectively account for 27 million, 19 million and 17 million TV homes. ...

NETGEM announces its Fourt quarter 2011 revenue

Reuters

... situation and results In early November, Netgem announced that the operator Netia had chosen Netgem's solution to launch its IPTV offering in Poland. ...

Sunrise IPTV unveils launch details

Broadband TV News

The new Sunrise TV service will offer over 160 TV and radio channels, including 29 in HD. The operator has been varrying a pilot TV service since last October. At launch, Sunrise will offer the Sunrise TV set comfort pack-age for CHF 125 per month, ...

Sun rises on new Swiss IPTV service

IPTV News

Swiss telco Sunrise Communications is to launch its new IPTV service in a couple of days, as promised last November. The new service will launch on January 23rd and include over 160 TV channels (including 29 in high-definition) and 80 radio channels, ...