

Jan 31, 2012, Daily News

Tuesday, 31 January 2012

Last Updated Tuesday, 31 January 2012

Qvest to distribute Teracue IPTV systems in Middle East

Telecompaper (subscription)

The company is now responsible for the exclusive distribution of IPTV systems for Germany-based IPTV equipment developer Teracue in the Middle East. The IPTV systems of Teracue enable encoding, decoding, transcoding, DVB-to-IP and high quality SD/HD ...

TV4U Returns to the Las Vegas Italian American Club for a USA Boxing Card on ...

PR.com (press release)

Com, the 48 channel IPTV network featuring free internet television, will again present a USA Boxing tournament featuring the top amateur boxers from Las Vegas and the Southwest. The bouts will be televised on several of the TV4U IPTV channels ...

QVest appointed Teracue exclusive distributor

DigitalProductionME.com

by Chris Newbould on Jan 31, 2012 Qvest Media has taken on the exclusive distribution of IPTV solutions for Teracue AG in the Middle East. The high-end IPTV solutions of the Germany-based manufacturer enable encoding, decoding,

Sky Will De-Couple Pay-TV Content From Satellite For OTT IPTV Era

paidContent.org

BSkyB (NYSE: BSY) is acting to head off rising City concerns about the threat from over-the-top connected TV services, by announcing it will launch by the summer its own such service that does not require a satellite subscription.

Sky looks to retain position with fibre and IPTV offerings

Telecoms.com (blog)

Sky, the UK TV broadcaster and ISP, has announced that it is adding a fibre broadband product to its internet packages, while also for the first time offering an à la carte internet TV service to compete with UK newcomer Netflix.

Octoshape and Craftwork Team Up to Disrupt the OTT IPTV Market

MarketWatch (press release)

ATLANTA, Jan 31, 2012 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Octoshape, an industry leader in cloud-based global streaming technologies, today announced a strategic partnership with leading software development company Craftwork, which specializes in solutions for the ...

BT Vision inks Miramax deal

IPTV News

UK telco BT has signed a licensing agreement with Miramax that will bring the latter's films to its hybrid DTT+IP television service 'BT Vision'. The agreement will give subscribers instant access to a range of films from the Miramax collection, ...

CenturyLink beefs up IPTV whole-home DVR

Rapid tv news

National US telco CenturyLink has upgraded its Prism IPTV service using Microsoft Mediaroom, giving subscribers an enhanced whole-home DVR experience. Prism subscribers can now pause live TV from any room in the house, and can also rewind and fast ...

CenturyLink enhances its Prism IPTV offering with Microsoft Mediaroom

FierceTelecom

CenturyLink (NYSE: CTL) isn't content to be just another me-too video service provider, so it's added a number of new features that enable users to interact with its IPTV service. Among the new features, which are available through its application of ...