

Feb 7, 2012, Daily News

Tuesday, 07 February 2012

Last Updated Tuesday, 07 February 2012

IPTV takeup taking off

iTWire

IPTV numbers are seriously on the rise with more than 300000 Australian homes now accessing an IPTV service, meaning around one in ten subscription TV services are currently delivered over broadband. Technology consulting firm Telsyte forecasts that by ...

Altibox: "Tackling customers with problems will greatly reduce early churn"

IPTV News

For IPTV, we see the development in tools that allow insight into your customer mass as the most interesting. Being able to quickly correlate any issues you may have between customers, in order to quickly pick up on a case and scope the size of the ...

Aussies Taking Up IPTV In Increasing Numbers

Gizmodo Australia

We may not all have NBN-level access speeds, but increasingly we're adopting IPTV for our television watching, with a recent study concluding that one in ten subscription TV services are being delivered over broadband. The Telsyte study concludes that ...

300000 Australians on IPTV

Advanced Television

A study released by Telsyte confirms the rise of subscription TV over broadband with more than 300000 Australian homes now accessing an IPTV service. This equates to around one in ten subscription TV services currently delivered over broadband.

Swisscom to wholesale IPTV platform in Germany

DigitalTVEurope.net

Swisscom is planning to offer its IPTV service in neighbouring Germany on a wholesale basis. The Swiss telco will offer its platform to German municipal utilities that provide internet services and to local cable operators, according to IPTV product ...

TransGaming Expands Into Hospitality Market With Industry Leader Select-TV

MarketWatch (press release)

TORONTO, ONTARIO AND KUALA LUMPUR, MALAYSIA, Feb 07, 2012 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX) --

TransGaming Inc. /quotes/zigman/399476 CA:TNG -3.92%, the global leader in the multiplatform deployment of interactive entertainment, and Malaysia-based IPTV ...

Customer experience revealed as the next frontier for Alcatel-Lucent Greg Owens, Director of Customer Experience Solutions Marketing at Alcatel-Lucent, told IPTV News yesterday (February 6th): "What we're announcing today is a lot of work that we've done to organise our company around the area of customer experience and ...

IPTV News

Harmonic High-Density Transcoder Powers 200-Channel HD/SD IPTV Service in ...

MarketWatch (press release)

"The ProStream 1000 with ACE delivers the video quality, functionality, and reliability to make it possible to expand our digital TV services successfully and cost-effectively, allowing us to bring high-quality, state-of-the-art IPTV services to rural ...

Primer on Net TV

Calgary Herald

IPTV, or Internet Protocol Television, may not be as widespread, but it has a long history here, with some of the earliest implementations in the world rolling out in Canada. IPTV services are offered by telephone and cable companies, ...

Verimatrix Launches New Series of Forums Highlighting Multi-Network Video ...

MarketWatch (press release)

In collaboration with key members of its diverse partner ecosystem, Verimatrix will help illustrate key enablers for commercial video delivery over combinations of managed networks (cable and satellite, IPTV, and terrestrial) and unmanaged networks ...