

Feb 12, 2012, Daily News

Sunday, 12 February 2012

Last Updated Sunday, 12 February 2012

Montenegro ends 2011 with 122734 pay-TV subscribers

Telecompaper (subscription) -

Cable TV reception saw an 8.71 percent drop, while MMDS grew by 2.84 percent, DTH by 4.52 percent and IPTV by 6.98 percent. IPTV remains the leading ...

India close to realising 74% FDI cap for TV sector

Rapid tv news

The greater cap will apply to broadcast distributors and carriage platforms such as direct to home (DTH) satellite TV providers, internet protocol TV (IPTV) ...

Govt for uniform FDI limit in cable TV at 74%

Hindustan Times

The enhanced cap would apply to the distribution and various carriage platforms like DTH, IPTV, mobile TV, HITS and cable companies.

UTStarcom wins two provincial IPTV contracts in China

IPTV News

Beijing-based equipment vendor Huawei has won two new contracts to support the IPTV network expansion ambitions of Fujian Telecom and Zhejiang Telecom, ...

UTStarcom wins China Telecom IPTV contracts

Advanced Television

UTStarcom, a provider of interactive, IP-based network solutions, has won two new contracts to support IPTV network expansion with Fujian Telecom and ...

Fixed broadband services to generate US$ 191bn worldwide this year

IPTV News

“Consumers are becoming increasingly reliant on a number of data-intensive services such as high-definition online video services, IPTV, and online gaming.

Samsung Smart TV suspended by ISP in Korea.

CNET Asia (blog)

They use PCs, laptops, tablets, smartphones, IPTV services and more which require an Internet connection, so what is really the matter with smart TVs?