

Feb 16, 2012, Daily News

Thursday, 16 February 2012

Last Updated Friday, 17 February 2012

Google Offering TV Over 1 Gbps Fiber in Kansas City Will Control the Pipe, the ...

Dslreports

Building on earlier rumors that Google was planning to add an IPTV service into the mix, the company is reported to have applied for an FCC license back in December allowing them to run the antenna farm necessary to get into delivering television.

Bouygues bolsters IPTV platform

Rapid tv news

As part of a wide range upgrade of its television network, Bouygues Telecom has upgraded the key software components and professional services of its next-generation IPTV offering including its new set-top box (STB), the Bbox.

Bouygues Telecom Selects NDS To Provide Software Components and Professional ...

EON: Enhanced Online News (press release)

LONDON--(EON: Enhanced Online News)--NDS today announced that it has been selected by French Telecom operator, Bouygues Telecom to support the deployment of its next generation IPTV platform including their new set-top box (STB), the Bbox.

Telestream Brings Excellence in Video Transcoding, Workflow Management and ...

Virtual Press Office (press release)

"At NAB you'll see new solutions targeted at broadcast, post-production, cable IPTV, and Internet OTT workflows that allow our customers to get more content to more screens more efficiently than ever before." Telestream's video transcoding software ...

Bouygues chooses NDS Group for new IPTV deployment

DigitalProductionME.com

by Jason Saundalkar on Feb 16, 2012 The NDS Group has been selected by Bouygues Telecom to support the deployment of its next generation IPTV system, which includes the new Bbox set-top box (STB). NDS is said to be providing STB integration services ...

NXP Software and Verimatrix Bring Secure Content Delivery to Android Devices

PR Newswire UK (press release)

This opens the door to new revenue streams for service providers such as broadcasters and IPTV providers to add premium (paid for) internet TV services. "Consumer demand for premium content on smart phones and tablets is growing rapidly.

Swisscom TV hits new peaks

IPTV News

Swiss telco Swisscom had reached 608000 subscribers for its IPTV service 'Swisscom TV' by the end of 2011, up 44% from December 2010, with 52000 customers added in the fourth quarter alone. Bundled offerings such as triple-play service 'Vivo Casa' ...

Fibre thread to Europe preserving preeminence in IPTV

Rapid tv news

Strong customer demand for and rollouts of fibre networks have to combined to maintain Europe's leadership in IPTV. Despite the predicted inexorable rise of both fibre networks and IPTV in Asia, new research from the Broadband-Forum has revealed just ...

CenturyLink increases broadband subscriber count, narrows access line losses ...

FierceTelecom

However, the continued decline in legacy services such as traditional voice offset the increase in strategic services like wireless backhaul, IPTV and broadband. This factor drove down operating revenues 3.2 percent from $4.81 billion in 2010 $4.65 ...

Colombian operator Emcali plans IPTV service

Rapid tv news

Colombian operator Emcali plans to launch an IPTV service in the next month and a half, featuring a build-your-own channel bundle strategy. Emcali is currently testing the service and designing its IPTV commercial offering.

Imagine ICE Video Platform Certified for Microsoft Mediaroom IPTV

TVover.net

Imagine Communications announces that its award-winning ICE Video Platform IPTV transcoder has successfully completed qualification testing for the Microsoft Mediaroom IPTV platform. The test was administered by Tech Mahindra as part of the Microsoft ...