

Feb 17, 2012, Daily News

Friday, 17 February 2012

Last Updated Friday, 17 February 2012

Win-win solution for all

Malaysia Star

An observer adds that internet protocol television (IPTV) offerings could be a factor that eventually erodes the competitive position of the incumbent. "Perhaps in the future, we could be watching Discovery Channel or AXN via the internet?"

Broadband Forum says Europe leads the way on IPTV

Cable.co.uk

The Broadband Forum revealed the global customer base of internet protocol TV (IPTV) products now stands at 55 million, with Europe accounting for 23.5 million of them. Robin Mersh, chief executive of the organisation, said operators in Europe have ...

Telefónica planning IPTV launch for Brazil this year

IPTV News

Spanish telecoms giant Telefónica will launch an IPTV service in Brazil in the second half of this year, according to local reports which quote Paulo César Teixeira, president of Telefónica's Brazilian subsidiary Vivo. Mr. Teixeira is quoted by ... Europe Remains Leader for IPTV

World Screen

By Kristin Brzoznowski LONDON: With strong consumer demand and active fiber rollouts, Europe continues to be the leader for IPTV, according to the latest estimates from the Broadband Forum. IPTV is approaching 55 million subscribers globally, ...

Netgem partners up for Latin American tour

IPTV News

French firm Netgem, a provider of digital convergence technologies, has formed partnerships with specialists from across the IPTV value chain to develop connected TV solutions designed for the needs of pay-TV providers in Latin America. Gamewood offers Internet TV in Danville

WSLS

The Ferrell Historic Lofts downtown is equipped to offer residents Gamewood's IPTV service, said Josh Lipsky, project manager of Rehab Builders Inc. "I think it's pretty cool … It's kind of ahead of the curve," Lipsky said. Fibre broadband 'to drive IPTV adoption'

uSwitch.com (Tech)

The wider deployment of hybrid superfast fibre optic broadband services is helping deliver IPTV services to more consumers, it has been claimed. In a new report, analyst firm Point Topic explained that the faster download speeds offered by fibre ...

Astro's game plan

Malaysia Star

Besides its basic product, Astro has ventured into offering high-definition TV known via the branding, Astro Beyond, also a recording service via PVR, and entered the domain of IPTV in a partnership with technology partner, Time dotCom Bhd. Its IPTV ...