

Feb 25, 2012, Daily News

Saturday, 25 February 2012

Last Updated Saturday, 25 February 2012

Canada's Rogers unveils next-gen home entertainment

Advanced Television

The initiative better allows it to compete with telco BCE's Fibe IPTV service. "Canadians are increasingly looking for seamless, easy-to-use and flexible ...

Rogers upgrades cable to compete with BCE's IPTV service

Canada.com

Telus has managed to gain more than half a million IPTV customers through an aggressive strategy targeting Shaw's customers. At stake is a portion of about ...

Telefónica improves pay-TV growth

IPTV News

A number of recent local reports have suggested that the company is planning to launch IPTV in Brazil later this year. In Chile, Telefónica reached 391000 ...

TOT looks to IPTV by June despite doubts

The Nation

While TOT hopes IPTV (Internet-protocol television) will be its new value-added service, management still doubts whether the project will be able to get off ...

Telekom Austria nears 200k IPTV subs

IPTV News

Its IPTV operation 'A1TV' delivered modest gains to reach 198000 subscribers by the end of 2011, but this could only partly compensate for a loss of fixed ...

Miranda to Launch Multiple New Solutions at NAB to Streamline ...

Review seeker (press release)

... a worldwide provider of production, playout and delivery systems for the television broadcast, cable, satellite and IPTV industries, today announced ...

Zhone supports FTTH deployment in Egypt

Telecompaper (subscription)

PHD developed the first residential real estate complex in Egypt in October 2011 to provide IPTV services over GPON, enabled by Zhone's MXK solution.