

Feb 26, 2012, Daily News

Sunday, 26 February 2012

Last Updated Sunday, 26 February 2012

Foxtel's new bid to secure ACCC nod

The Australian

It is understood the pay-TV companies will allow some content, including movies and lifestyle programming, to be used by ISPs for internet protocol television (IPTV), TV delivered via the internet. The Australian Competition & Consumer Commission has ...

OTE prepares to sell

Broadband TV News

In Greece, OTE launched a DTH service last October to build on its IPTV offer. Both operate under the OTE TV brand. Hellas Sat's satellite Hellas Sat 2 is ...

Vodafone retreats from Bundesliga tender

Rapid tv news

According to Joussen, the purchase of the live coverage rights of the games would not lead to a crucial growth push for its IPTV platform Vodafone TV. "We are not dependent on football to also become strong in the TV business

TOT begins IPTV trial with Cubic

Telecompaper (subscription)

Thai telecommunications firm TOT has begun an IPTV trial with Cubic and commercial HD IPTV services are expected to be launched in April, The Bankok Post ...

TOT begins IPTV trial with Cubic

Telecompaper (subscription)

Thai telecommunications firm TOT has begun an IPTV trial with Cubic and commercial HD IPTV services are expected to be launched in April, The Bankok Post ...

Foxtel Facing Content Loss Optus & Fetch TV Could Benefit

ChannelNews

By David Richards | Sunday | 26/02/2012 Foxtel is set to concede some of their exclusive programs to pay TV operators in an effort to appease the demands of ...

IPTV growth outpacing cable and satellite

Advanced Television

The latest IPTV forecast from research firm MRG indicates that the number of global IPTV subscribers will grow from 53 million in 2011 to 105.1 million in 2015, a CAGR of 18.7 per cent. The service revenue for the global IPTV market was US$21.8 billion ...