

Jan. 27 2006 Daily News

Friday, 27 January 2006

IPTV: New Signs of Life

Light Reading - USA

PARIS -- After a year of frustration, the European IPTV community expects 2006 to be the year in which concrete decisions are made and real budgets are spent ...

Courtney appears on IPTV

Burlington Hawk Eye - IA, United States

By AIMEE TABOR. Sen. Tom Courtney, D--Burlington, will appear on "Iowa Press" today discussing a controversial state lottery game. ...

IPTV Start Up Edgware Gets Funding From Creandum

TMCnet - USA

Swedish IPTV start up Edgware, which develops high performance servers for on-demand television services, today announced the successful conclusion of a ...

Amaru Inc. Companies Set to Launch Global IPTV for US and Asian ...

TMCnet - USA

Global IPTV service offering consumers 40 channels of video on-demand (VOD) content delivered to television screens via a broadband connection has been ...

Amaru Gets Into IPTV

Light Reading - USA

... based company M2B World Inc., together with its technology partner Zentek Technology Singapore (Zentek), announced the launch of a Global IPTV service that ...

Amaru subsidiaries, Zentek launch IPTV service

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten, Netherlands

... Pte and its Hollywood-based company M2B World, together with its technology partner Zentek Technology Singapore, have launched a Global IPTV service which will ...

TANDBERG Television wins US MPEG-4 IPTV order for $10m

WebWire (press release) - Atlanta, GA, USA

... TANDBERG Television deliver MPEG-4 AVC SD compression systems during the first half of 2006, in support of that customer's deployment of IPTV super-headend ...

Uni2 to launch IPTV by end of quarter

TeleGeography - Washington, D.C., USA

France Télécom's Spanish telco Uni2 is planning to launch IPTV services under the Wanadoo Spain banner before the end of the first quarter, becoming the ...