May 9, 2012, Daily News

Wednesday, 09 May 2012
Last Updated Wednesday, 09 May 2012

Myricom and Emulex Form Strategic Partnership to Provide High Performance ...
MarketWatch (press release)
The   FastStack application-acceleration software from Myricom provides   market-leading solutions for several vertical industries including   financial trading, cybersecurity, and IPTV and video streaming. As part of this partnership, Myricom and Emulex ...

Ballarat, Geelong customers go offline
Sydney Morning Herald
“We are currently experiencing an outage to broadband, IPTV   (internet-delivered television) and inbound phone services in Geelong   and Ballarat,” Ivan Slavich, the chief executive of the Canberra-based   TransACT said. “The outage began at 11.40am ... and ...

 Actus Digital Teams Up With NEWBASE
San Francisco Chronicle (press release)
... cable and satellite providers, IPTV,   media and monitoring agencies, governments, regulators and content producers, today announced a technology partnership with German-based   NEWBASE, a developer of specialized media monitoring technology.

Du bandwidth trial bodes well for IPTV, mobile TV
Rapid tv news
UAE   telecommunications operator Du has registered an apparent regional   first after successfully completing a 100 Gigabit transmission per   wavelength trial over long distances with Huawei on its optical   transport network (OTN).

Verimatrix: "HD content delivered to any device has become the primary benchmark"
IPTV News
When we took our first product to market in 2004 it was a product specifically designed for IPTV.   We designed this product from the ground up for the emerging "telco   TV" market, as it was called in those days, and we bet the farm on it.

ALi Corp M3911 Networking Media Processor for IPTV/OTT selected by VideoWeb
Advanced Television
ALi   Corporation, a provider of set-top box (STB) system-on-chip (SoC)   solutions, has announced that its M3911 Networking Media Processor has   been selected by VideoWeb, a German OTT (Over-the-top) service provider,   to be integrated into the newly ... Two Latin American telcos choose Agama DTV monitoring system
Broadcast Engineering
Two Latin American telecommunications operators have selected the Agama Technologies DTV monitoring system for IPTV   quality assurance. The installations will help the telcos maintain a   high level of service quality and quickly discover problems, ...