

May 17, 2012, Daily News

Thursday, 17 May 2012

Last Updated Thursday, 17 May 2012

Telia is challenging content owners

Broadband TV News

Swedish IPTV provider Telia is challenging studios to shorten the window for theatrical movies, "we are ready to experiment," said Kent Johnsson, VP consumer marketing at Telia. Until now, the studios are unwilling to bring the date forward when new ...

LEIGHTRONIX and Aurora Networks Partner in IPTV Arena

Midland Daily News

Expanding on standard Internet protocol based systems widely known as Internet Protocol television (IPTV), LuxeVision integrates encoding, scheduled playback, transcoding, delivery, and decoding functions. The result is an end-to-end solution that ...

Moto gets KreaTV with connected device operating systems

Rapid tv news

Using its annual video forum to plot out the course it wishes to take with advanced video products, Motorola Mobility has enhanced its KreaTV operating system for IPTV and hybrid set top boxes (STBs). Moto says that it will drive the future of TV by ...

Briel On ‐ Live streaming goes over-the-top

Broadband TV News

There is a thin line between fully managed IPTV services and managed OTT services ‐ and the gap is closing. Soon we will see lots more OTT live streaming. At this year's Motorola Video Leadership Conference in Stockholm Finnish company Maxisat was ...

Corpus Takes on Cable Digitization Challenge

IT News Online

Corpus Media Labs (www.corpus.com), a Systems Integrator offering Digital TV and IPTV solutions around its software branded as 'Tornado', delivers media solutions creating value & sustainable revenues to their customers and clients.

BBC shrinks Red Button: Loses 8 channels after the Olympics

Register

By Bill Ray • Get more from this author The BBC will be dropping eight of its Red Button channels after an Olympic splurge, focusing on IPTV content instead of the alternative electronic programme guide that the Red Button had become.

HGI Outlines its Vision and Chairs "Conquering the Digital Home Marketplace ...

Home Toys (press release)

16 May 2012. Pierre Lin, Telstra's representative at the management committee of HGI, has presented a vision for smart home architecture driven by the requirements of broadband service providers at Broadband-IP&TV Asia. Dr. Lin also chaired a panel ...

Frontier has no plans to offer IPTV to offset residential declines

FierceTelecom

Sophisticated consume Frontier Communications (NYSE: FTR), like many of its ILEC counterparts, is trying to find ways to offset the inevitable declines in its residential business revenues, but one thing it won't do is build out an IPTV service.

Asia Pacific to add 440 million digital TV homes

Broadband TV News

Digital cable will contribute a further 195 million, with pay DTH supplying a 34 million more and pay IPTV 86 million. By contrast, the region will lose 152 million analog cable homes and 196 million analog terrestrial ones.