

July 2, 2012, Daily News

Monday, 02 July 2012

Last Updated Monday, 02 July 2012

Red Solutions signs IPTV specialist as it shifts to distribution model

InAVate

Audio visual technology solutions for an integrated world.

Edgware Selected to Implement IPTV Services for One of Switzerland's ...

Virtual-Strategy Magazine

Edgware's Distributed Delivery Network together with Netstream's managed IPTV service has been selected to provide IPTV and catch-up TV, pause live TV, nPVR and video on demand (VOD) services. | Virtual Strategy Magazine is an online publication ...

202 Communications Retained by Mariner for Public Relations

MarketWatch (press release)

Mariner is a leading provider of IPTV video service monitoring and management platforms for multi-screen networks. Mariner's flagship product, the innovative and award-winning Mariner xVu(TM), enables service providers to offer a market-leading, ...

Open IPTV Forum gains toehold in Middle East

IPTV News

Industry trade body the Open IPTV Forum (OIPF) has gained three important new members, including its first in the Middle East: Saudi Telecom Company (STC). Edgware Selected to Implement IPTV Services for One of Switzerland's ...

San Francisco Chronicle

“Netstream's innovative solution gives operators the benefits of a complete wholesale IPTV package, combined with the high Quality of Experience and scalability enabled by implementing Edgware's Distributed Video Delivery Network strategy,” says ...

GlobeCast makes commercial launch of new IPTV service

Rapid tv news

France Telecom/Orange subsidiary GlobeCast has announced the commercial launch of its new IPTV platform for international and thematic content in the US.

YouView recommends radio hams' pet peeve

Reg Hardware

The IPTV platform is recommending the networking-over-the-mains technology. YouView is currently running a closed trial of service. Trial support documents seen by The Register recommend punters whose broadband box is more than a Cat 5 cable length ...