

July 9, 2012, Daily News

Monday, 09 July 2012

Last Updated Monday, 09 July 2012

ATEME: TITAN Powers Combined IPTV/OTT Service for Saudi Telecom

MarketWatch (press release)

PARIS, Jul 09, 2012 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Transcoding specialist ATEME has won a first Middle East customer for its TITAN platform, in a deployment by content aggregator Intigral for both IPTV and OTT services in Saudi Arabia. Intigral chose ATEME's TITAN ...

Opera Software aims to partner set top box manufactures

Times of India

Opera Software said it looks to partner with set top box (STB) manufactures, which will help DTH, IPTV and cable subscribers to access internet from their television sets.

Opera Software looking to launch TV-based browsing in India

Tech2

Norway-based Opera Software has recently revealed that it is looking to partner with set top box (STB) manufacturers in India to enable DTH, IPTV, and cable subscribers access the Internet from their televisions. This is a big bet by Opera on the ...

Study calls movies more popular than sports for Malaysian TV viewers

FierceIPTV

Research firm Nielsen has discovered something about TV viewing habits that could have a major impact on U.S. service providers and the content providers who serve them. It seems, at least in Malaysia--a growing market for IPTV providers--movies, not ...

Malaysians watch movies more than sports, says Nielsen study

The Malaysian Reserve

With many new Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) players expressing interest in entering the television broadcasting industry, sports content is often touted as "killer content" to increase viewership and subscription. However, a recent study by ...

LEIGHTRONIX Hires Bill Gallagher as Head of IPTV Business Development

Virtual-Strategy Magazine

Sales executive of IPTV systems brings 30 years of broadband and telecommunications experience | Virtual Strategy Magazine is an online publication devoted entirely to virtualization technologies.

Telstra boss ready to transform digital media and IPTV businesses

FierceIPTV

If Telstra Media CEO Rick Ellis has his way, the Australian company will live and die--financially at least--on its digital media and IPTV businesses.

DOE delays set-top box energy efficiency regulations

FierceIPTV

The U.S. Department of Energy has deferred issuance of proposed regulations on an energy-conservation standard for set-top boxes, including those for IPTV, cable and satellite service

Humax grabs top stake in MMC Technology to boost U.S. presence

FierceIPTV

Equipment vendors and service providers alike are focusing on residential gateways as the weapon that they can use to hit an ever-moving target of video subscribers within today's connected home.

Accedo help launch FOXTEL on Samsung Smart TVs in Australia

MediaMughals

Accedo, market-leading enabler of Smart TV and IPTV solutions, have helped FOXTEL launch their first connected TV application in Australia, by designing and developing the FOXTEL on Internet TV application for Samsung's Smart TV platform. FOXTEL on ...

ATEME and TITAN Powers Combined IPTV/OTT Service for Saudi Telecom

TVover.net

IPTV news, business reports, forum, and Internet TV directory, by TVover.net. Core topics include IPTV software, hardware, service providers, set-top boxes, and events.

European Communication Services (ECS) and OH TV Launch Broadcast and ...

Broadcast Newsroom

European Communication Services and OH TV today announced that they have joined forces to offer the African broadcast market joint solutions providing unprecedented broadcast and IPTV access to the African continent and around the world. Together the ...

AT&T beefs up U-verse feature set

FierceIPTV

AT&T continues to use the strength of its IPTV platform to blend the capabilities and features of Apple's iPhone and iPad devices with its U-verse video service via a series of downloadable U-verse apps made available to the wireless devices.