

July 16, 2012, Daily News

Monday, 16 July 2012

Last Updated Monday, 16 July 2012

Humax takes YouView to IBC

Broadband TV News

Throughout IBC 2012, the high-spec, multi-room Humax stand will house the full range of Humax high definition, IPTV and hybrid boxes for cable, satellite and terrestrial TV services for the European market, with senior representatives from Humax on ...

'Now TV' could be BSkyB's low-risk revolution in IPTV

paidContent.org

News Corp's part-owned UK satcaster tentatively launches the first phase of what could be the start of a strategy-changing new business line - internet-delivered pay-TV that puts its satellite dishes in the shade.

BTel Purchases Nordtelekom Clients In Hungary

XpatLoop.com

Business Telekom (BTel) is purchasing a group of ADSL and IPTV subscribers ... A total of 2751 ADSL and 63 IPTV subscribers are being taken over from July.

Market conditions' blamed as MobiTV pulls back IPO bid

FierceIPTV

MobiTV has had second thoughts about an IPO it initiated last August and has now withdrawn it. The company, which makes apps that let users watch TV on smart phones and has recently pushed into the TV Everywhere space, had hoped to raise up to $75 ...

Sky's Pricey New Now TV PAYG Streaming TV Is Here

Gizmodo UK

Sky's been teasing details of its new entry into the IPTV wars for a couple of months now, and thankfully it's finally delivered. Now TV is now available for £15 a ...

Rostelecom gains pay-TV subs

Broadband TV News

Country Profiles; Digital TV Eastern Europe; IPTV World Forecasts; Satellite TV ... Of these, 800000, or twice as many as a year earlier, received IPTV services, ...

Montenegro ends June with 126093 pay-TV subscribers

Telecompaper (subscription)

IPTV is still the leading pay-TV platform with 42.11 percent of the total market, followed by DTH with 28.20 percent, MMDS with 16.26 percent and cable with ...