

Feb. 10 2006 Daily News

Friday, 10 February 2006

GlobeVISION Announces On-Demand IPTV Service in North America

TMCnet - USA

GlobeVISION has announced an IPTV service geared toward Asian-Americans in North America. The company has already signed content ...

GlobeVISION Rolls Out IPTV Service for Asian Americans

World Screen News - New York,NY,USA

LOS ANGELES, February 10: South Korea 's MBC, SBS and CJ Media are among the content providers for a new IPTV service from GlobeVISION targeting Asian ...

GlobeVision launches IPTV service for Asian-Americans

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten,Netherlands

GlobeVision, global media service company, is launching the first on demand IPTV service for Asian-Americans in North America, and has already forged content ...

SES Americom Signs Agreement with BellSouth for IPTV Trial

Wireless Insight Asia (press release) - Singapore,Singapore

... BellSouth with video aggregation, encoding, monitoring, and transport over the IP-PRIME platform, which is based at the SES Americom IPTV Broadcast Center in ...

Tandberg Television to Acquire SkySteam for $80M

TV Technology - Falls Church,VA,USA

The acquisition, which is expected to close in April, will expand Tandberg Television's technology and services for IPTV, cable, satellite and on-demand markets ...

Does Cisco need consumer electronics?

Register - London,England,UK

... Kiss do. SFA had already shown that it can land some of the big IPTV supply contracts to major US telcos, with the AT&T deal. So ...

China Telecom readies nationwide ADSL upgrade

Telecom Asia Daily / Wireless Asia - Hong Kong

The upgrade is for the nationwide promotion of IPTV services offered by China Telecom this year, the firm said. At the end of 2005 ...