

July 17, 2012, Daily News

Tuesday, 17 July 2012

Last Updated Tuesday, 17 July 2012

Sky launches flexible IPTV service NOW TV
uSwitch.com (Tech)

Broadband provider Sky has officially launched its new internet-based television platform - NOW TV.

AMINO TECHNOLOGIES PLC : 17/07/2012 - Interim Results

4-traders

Amino Technologies plc ('Amino' or the 'Company') (LSE: AMO), the Cambridge-based leader in digital entertainment solutions for IPTV, Internet TV and in-home multimedia distribution, is pleased to announce unaudited consolidated results for the period ...

Amino wins substantial STB order in South Eastern Europe
IPTV News

UK firm Amino Technologies has won a substantial contract to provide high-definition set-top boxes for one of the fastest-growing IPTV deployments in South Eastern Europe.

StreamingMedia.com Industry Announcements

StreamingMedia.com (press release)

StreamingMedia.com is the #1 destination for professionals seeking streaming and online video industry news, information, articles, directories and services.

Alcatel-Lucent issues profit warning

IPTV News

Alcatel-Lucent has become the latest major telecoms equipment vendor to issue a revised financial outlook for 2012 due to the difficult macroeconomic environment.

Pace supplying hybrid set-tops for New Zealand IPTV play

FierceIPTV

Pace Plc is providing the software and hardware elements of Sky New Zealand/TVNZ's Igloo TV multi-service offering that provides no-cost terrestrial free-to-air channels along with a premium channel package, pay-per-view sporting events and ...

Blackbelt TV Inks Deal to Launch with Canalsat in 52 Countries

Multichannel News

Mixed martial arts proponent Blackbelt TV has pinned a distribution agreement with Canalsat, the subscription TV and IPTV service, that will see it launch in 52 nations in Europe and Africa.

Sky's new Now TV service set to challenge Netflix, LoveFilm

FierceIPTV

BSkyB will take direct competitive aim at over-the-top providers Netflix and Amazon.com's LoveFilm when today it launches its new Internet-TV service, Now TV.

Now TV powered by Sky goes live

Pocket-lint.com

Sky has announced the launch of its pay-per-view IPTV streaming service, Now TV, as it looks to claw back lost time against Netflix and LoveFilm. The.