

July 19, 2012, Daily News

Thursday, 19 July 2012

Last Updated Thursday, 19 July 2012

San Francisco judge clears way for AT&T U-verse utility boxes

FierceIPTV

In a case that seems to have lasted only slightly less time than a presidential election campaign, San Francisco Superior Court Judge Teri Jackson might have finally cleared the way for AT&T (NYSE: T) to install up to 726 U-verse utility boxes on the ...

Canada's EION to help deliver IPTV in Brazil

IPTV News

Canadian firm EION Wireless, a provider of broadband wireless products, has received a funding award from International Science and Technology Partnerships Canada (ISTPCanada) to create new solutions that enable the provision of reliable, high-quality ...

FiOS carries Verizon to higher wireline consumer revenues; Sub growth slows

FierceIPTV

Verizon's (NYSE: VZ) 2.5 percent year-over-year second-quarter wireline consumer revenue increase--"the highest in several years," as the carrier said in its official earnings release--came mainly thanks to a still-growing FiOS business. Sixty-five ...

Accedo develops Olympics smart TV app for Terra

Telecompaper (subscription)

Sweden-based enabler of smart TV and IPTV applications Accedo has developed an Olympics app for Latin American digital media company and content ...

Volicon IBC2012 Preview

Broadcast Newsroom

Volicon products and services meet the demanding requirements of broadcasters, cable, and IPTV service providers, and enterprise and government organizations looking to improve broadcast product quality, enhance video management, and lower costs.

Market to Market names new host

Iowa Farmer Today

Daniel Miller, IPTV executive director and general manager, said, "By selecting Mike Pearson as the new host, we ensure that Iowa Public Television continues ...

Bollywood expands in CEE

Broadband TV News

Country Profiles; Digital TV Eastern Europe; IPTV World Forecasts; Satellite ... They are currently available to subscribers of UPC Digital, Romtelecom's IPTV and ...

--