

Aug. 18, 2012, Daily News

Saturday, 18 August 2012

Last Updated Saturday, 18 August 2012

Justice approves Verizon Wireless-cable deal … with restrictions

FierceIPTV

As expected, the Justice Department has given Verizon (NYSE: VZ) FiOS a fighting chance against its cable competitors—whether it wants it or not. In a ruling Thursday, the Justice Department's antitrust division said Verizon Wireless could spend $3.9 ...

Business Wire

Virtual-Strategy Magazine

Market research firm Infonetics Research released excerpts from its 2012 IPTV Service Deployment Strategies: Global Service Provider Survey, for which service ...

Infonetics: IPTV Operators Turning Up the Heat with Multi-Screen TV ...

Business Wire (press release)

Heynen adds: “In particular, multi-screen video—“TV Everywhere” to some—is gaining momentum across all pay-TV operator types (cable, satellite, and IPTV) in ...

QTel goes X Large with VOD

DigitalTVEurope.net

QTel runs the Mozaic IPTV service and its VOD offer will comprise movies, TV series, music videos and kids content. It will be launched by On Demand Group.

Tenet, MakLaut TV get IPTV licences

Telecompaper (subscription)

Ukraine's national broadcast council has issued IPTV licences to the operators Tenet and MakLaut TV. MakLaut has received two licences for providinfg services ...

Court says online streaming falls under Video Privacy Protection Act

FierceOnlineVideo

... FierceMobileContent · FierceDeveloper · FierceTelecom · FierceIPTV · Fierce ... Telecom News · IPTV · Enterprise Communications · Cable · Wireless News ...

Bell Aliant extends FTTH to 5 new communities, updates download ...

FierceTelecom

... FierceMobileContent · FierceDeveloper · FierceTelecom · FierceIPTV · Fierce ... Bell Aliant Q2 revenue down 0.7 percent, but FTTH, IPTV expansion continues ...

Verizon, cablecos said to agree to JV limits

FierceOnlineVideo

... FierceMobileContent · FierceDeveloper · FierceTelecom · FierceIPTV · Fierce ... Telecom News · IPTV · Enterprise Communications · Cable · Wireless News ...