

Aug. 31, 2012, Daily News

Friday, 31 August 2012

Last Updated Friday, 31 August 2012

Microsoft Mediaroom wins regional IPTV customer

IPTV News

TDS Telecommunications, a communications provider in the US state of Wisconsin, has built a new IPTV platform and given the nod to Microsoft to supply its Mediaroom middleware. The telco has spent around US$ 25mn on building the new platform, which ...

Ukraine waters down must-carry rule

Broadcast Engineering

The Ukrainian government will no longer require cable operators to carry all digital terrestrial channels in their program packages after a strong backlash from the industry. The Ukrainian National Council on Television and Radio announced the ...

Telekom's Entertain is on the go

Broadband TV News

The new TV apps on the IPTV set-top box offer more options including a Media Center, daily news updates from ARD Tagesschau and the Bild.de newspaper site. "Entertain has freed viewers from rigid broadcast schedules. With Entertain to go we are ... Search local inventory, coupons and more

The Herald | HeraldOnline.com

It also provides forecasts for revenue and unit shipments. The service outlines current distribution channels in addition to forecasting and analyzing market demand. Segment breakdowns are included for Internet protocol television (IPTV), satellite ... UTStarcom Closes Divestiture of IPTV Business

Equities.com

("UTStarcom" or "the Company") (NASDAQ: UTSI), a leading provider of Broadband equipment and solutions, today announced that on August 31, 2012 the Company successfully closed the previously announced divestiture of its IPTV business.

HBO to join the Nordic OTT fray this October

IPTV News

It's all happening right now in the Nordic countries: HBO Nordic (the newly formed joint venture of Home Box Office and Parsifal International) has confirmed that it will be launching an over-the-top video service mid-October 2012. As the first HBO ...

Estonia's Elion to launch box-free IPTV from Samsung

DigitalTVEurope.net

TeliaSonera and Samsung have teamed up to develop a Smart TV platform that will enable existing IPTV operators to deploy their services without a set-top box but which includes support for linear, catch-up and on-demand services. Samsung is ...