

Sept. 3, 2012, Daily News

Monday, 03 September 2012

Last Updated Monday, 03 September 2012

UTStarcom completes separation of IPTV business

IPTV News

Beijing-based telecoms equipment vendor UTStarcom has completed the divestiture of its IPTV business announced last July, creating a privately-held standalone business to be helmed by outgoing CEO Jack Lu. The divestiture is expected to cut around ...

Celebro Media Networks: International IPTV Partnerships to Become a Highlight ...

The Herald | HeraldOnline.com

WASHINGTON — Celebro Media Networks, international IPTV and broadcast specialists, are happy to announce its Director of Business & Consulting Wesley Dodd will lead the session 'TV Without Borders: How Can Innovative Delivery Methods Enrich ...

BT Vision upgrades VOD asset management

IPTV News

BeBanjo's products will enable BT to manage and track asset rights, scheduling, metadata and the operational workflow of its IPTV service, which has seen a 300% increase in the amount of content it holds over the past three years. The Madrid-based ...

UTStarcom closes divestiture of IPTV business

Telecompaper (subscription)

IP networking products provider UTStarcom Holdings has closed the divestiture of its IPTV business. Simultaneous with the closing, William Wong has assumed ...

The free-to-air free for all

B&T Marketing & Media

PwC's report blames competition from IPTV, as well as PVRs, time shifting, ad skipping and economic uncertainty for the 1.8% predicted compound annual ...

Maxis beats sector's average

The Star Online

MAXIS' management has entered a 10-year partnership with exclusivity for Astro to be the IPTV service provider for 3 years. Under the first 3-year partnership, Maxis will be the exclusive service provider while Astro will develop tailor-made content ...

United States : VERIMATRIX to enhance Samsung Electronics ...

Equities.com

Verimatrix - IPTV content protection specialist is to strengthen Samsung Electronics' Smart TVs with advanced ViewRight security software, supporting IP and ...

Virgin Media IPTV boosts global TiVo revenues

uSwitch.com (Tech)

The popularity of Virgin Media's subscription television service has helped boost global TiVo subscriptions and revenues, it has been reported. According to Reuters, TiVo Inc has seen a five per cent rise in share value, on the back of increased set ...