

Sept. 23, 2012, Daily News

Sunday, 23 September 2012

Last Updated Sunday, 23 September 2012

TiVo Ready Cloud-Based Platform for Cable, Satellite

Consumer Electronics Daily (registration)

Swedish cable operator Com Hem will deploy a cloud-based TiVo platform as part of its IPTV network during the "next few quarters" as a possible precursor to ...

Research and Markets: Global IPTV Industry Outlook to 2016 ...

Virtual-Strategy Magazine (press release)

The report titled Global IPTV Industry Outlook to 2016 - Favorable Prospects with Rapid Broadband Infrastructure Deployment in Asia encompasses a ...

Outdoor Channel expands in Sweden

Realscreen

The channel launched in Sweden last year on TeliaSonera's IPTV service. It is subtitled in Swedish and Finnish. First launched in the United States as a linear ...

Ads on CBC Radio like condos in Point Pleasant Park

TheChronicleHerald.ca

CBC Radio offers a much-needed "public space" in Canada's audio-visual system. It's similar to what Point Pleasant Park means for Halifax. But with plans to go more commercial, including ads on Radio Two, CBC risks undermining this fundamental mission.

Bell says it needs Astral to compete

Castanet.net

Bell should be allowed buy specialty TV and radio station company Astral Media to get bigger to take on foreign online competitors like Netflix, BCE CEO George Cope said Friday as part of the telecom giant's final pitch to CRTC. If the $3.4-billion deal is shot ...

IDA fines Singtel S$300000

The Malaysian Insider - &Irm;Sep 21, 2012&Irm;

SINGAPORE, Sept 21 &mdash; The Infocomm Development Authority of Singapore (IDA) has imposed a financial penalty on SingTel for breaching the Code of Practice for Telecommunication Service Resiliency. This follows IDA's investigation into the disruption of ...

Google broadcast ambitions may still be active

E&T magazine

The supposed 'for sale' division unveiled 10 new boxes, eight of which are aimed at the IPTV market Google sought but failed to crack through a partnership with ...