

Oct. 1, 2012, Daily News

Monday, 01 October 2012

Last Updated Monday, 01 October 2012

Accenture Buys IPTV Assets From Nokia Siemens Network

Multichannel News

Accenture has acquired the software and related assets of Nokia Siemens Networks' IPTV business, which the global consulting firm said will beef up its offerings for building over-the-top TV services. Financial terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Accenture buys Nokia Siemens' IPTV assets

Reuters

Accenture said the newly acquired IPTV software, assets and capabilities will be part of its video solutions business that helps companies launch video services at a low cost. Internet protocol television uses the same technology that powers the ...

Connected Home Academy joins Open IPTV Forum

Rapid tv news

The Connected Home Academy has joined the Open IPTV Forum (OIPF), to join the thought leadership that the group is working on to shape the future of global, mass-market Internet-connected TV. The group champions an evolutionary path towards a ...

Satellite and IPTV broadcaster OHTV expands with Playbox

Broadcast Engineering

OHTV CEO Akin Salami said. "We have been relying on PlayBox Technology for the three years since we started hosting our own broadcast operations. Our first servers were the 3RU type but now we are tight on rack space and the 1RU versions are now ...

Intigral takes top spot in Middle East as it exceeds 6.9 million users

Rapid tv news

Dubai-based digital media solutions provider Intigral has announced that its pan-regional reach has exceeded 6.9 million users across multiple delivery platforms including mobile, web and IPTV. This places Intigral as the leading digital media service ...

Netgem forms Connected Home division

IPTV News

Romain's core responsibilities at previous companies have included business development with global media and telecommunications operators to cover set-top boxes, modems and gateways, as well as IPTV service platforms and other connected ...

Chunghwa Telecom goes OTT with You Tube – is this a big deal?

IPTV News

Taiwanese incumbent Chunghwa Telecom's Multimedia-on-Demand (MOD) IPTV service has been through some tough times this year, with its subscriber take-up slowing significantly and the company still unable to access many of the country's most popular ...