

Oct. 3, 2012, Daily News

Wednesday, 03 October 2012

Last Updated Wednesday, 03 October 2012

Accenture bolsters video skill set by acquiring Nokia Siemens Networks' IPTV unit
FierceTelecom

Accenture on Monday acquired Nokia Siemens Networks' IPTV software, a move that will immediately enhance the systems integration and services company's over-the-top video capabilities with a broader set of integration and software components.

Accenture Boosts Video Capabilities

Zacks.com

Management technology outsourcing and consulting service provider, Accenture plc (ACN) recently took over certain Internet Protocol television (IPTV) assets of Nokia Siemens Networks for an undisclosed amount. Nokia Siemens Networks is a 50-50 joint ...

Nokia Siemens Closes Sale Of IPTV Assets To Accenture

Fox Business

-The transaction does not include the Nokia Siemens Networks' Belgacom related IPTV assets. -Selected smaller IPTV customers are out of scope of this transaction. Nokia Siemens Networks is working closely with these customers to identify the best ...

Intel Capital invests $40 million in 10 firms

Livemint-18 hours ago

Hungama.com serves content to consumers in 47 countries across mobile, Internet and IPTV services and has more than 150 partners across the world.

RBNL's Big Magic International taps the US market

Indiantelevision.com

It has also worked out a deal to reach out to Dish Network's IPTV offerings. "We will be ... They are also working out IPTV offerings," said a RBNL spokesperson.

NSN completes sale of IPTV ops to Belgacom

Telecompaper (subscription)

Nokia Siemens Networks has completed the sale of its Belgacom related IPTV assets to Belgacom. The divestment is part of Nokia Siemens Networks' strategy ...

Accenture buys IPTV assets from Nokia Siemens

NDTV

Consulting and outsourcing group Accenture has bought some internet protocol television (IPTV) assets from Nokia Siemens Networks to bolster its online video ...