

Oct. 27, 2012, Daily News

Saturday, 27 October 2012

Last Updated Saturday, 27 October 2012

TV shines bright for Orange

IPTV News

Pay-TV services again delivered a much-needed prop for France Telecom/Orange in the third quarter of this year, as overall revenues declined once more due ...

Comedy Central Rolling Out To 8 Asian Markets

Media Research Asia.com (subscription)

Viewing platforms include cable, IPTV, OTT, MMDS, DVBT, DTH, as well as online and mobile simulcast. Comedy Central Asia's programming line-up will ...

@ TelcoTV: IPTV is about engaging consumers

Communications, Engineering & Design Magazine

For AT&T, the IPTV game right now is about engagement. Customers who interact with their TVs churn at a much lower rate. And 65 to 70 percent of its viewers ...

Global pay TV market expected to grow, with cable losing share

DigitalTVEurope.net-17 hours ago

The value of the worldwide pay TV market, including cable, satellite and IPTV, is expected to grow by the end of this year to US$236 billion (€182 billion), ...

HomePNA Announces Technicolor as New Alliance Member

Business Wire (press release)

HomePNA home networking products are critical components of IPTV services being deployed today by telcos, cable, and satellite service providers of all sizes.

Cartoon Net HD added to FiOS

C21Media

NEWS BRIEF: Verizon has added high definition feeds of children's channel Cartoon Network and youth-skewing Adult Swim to its FiOS IPTV service in the US.

AT&T TV subs, revenue up for Q3 in best showing in 4 years

Rapid tv news

AT&T kept up its record of subscriber additions in the third quarter of 2012 with the net addition of 198,000 U-verse IPTV subscribers and 613,000 high-speed ...