Nov. 4, 2012, Daily News
Sunday, 04 November 2012
Last Updated Sunday, 04 November 2012

BT accelerates fibre rollout once more
Telecoms.com
The telco also passed three-quarters of a million subscribers for its IPTV service 'BT Vision' after adding 21,000 customers in the third quarter of this year, and is looking forward to greater gains after signing new sports broadcasting rights in the period.

Fetch TV's "Dramatic" Rise: Treble Play Lures
Smart Office
Fetch TV, which operates an IPTV service in OZ, selling through iiNet, Internode Optus and Adam Internet, has seen a "dramatic" rise"in subscription numbers, ...

BT passes 750000 IPTV subscriber mark
FierceIPTV
BT (NYSE: BT) has hit the 750,000 subscriber milestone for its BT Vision IPTV service, thanks to the 21,000 new customers who signed up in the third quarter of this year. It's also accelerating its fiber rollout, the company said. BT reported second quarter ...

Customer Win: Australian Communications Leader Grabs More ...
WebWire (press release)
The company supports more than 1.7 million broadband, telephony and Internet Protocol TV (IPTV) services across Australia. BMC's single integrated Remedy ...

BT cost-cutting pushes profits up 7%
Financial Times
BT Group has been forced to revise its outlook for full-year revenues owing to a “triple whammy of recession, regulation and rain” but promised a stronger performance in the second half of the year. Pre-tax profit at the UK telecoms group rose 7 per cent to ...

Bell Aliant says fibre optic network bringing in customers, helping ...
Medicine Hat News
The Halifax-based telecom now has 107,000 IPTV customers and the IPTV revenue grew by $10 million to $21.4 million, the largest area of revenue growth in ...

IPTV subscribers predicted to hit 6 mln this week
Yonhap News
There were 5.948 million subscribers as of Oct. 28, according to the three local IPTV operators -- KT, SK Broadband and LG U+ -- and their industry group, Korea Digital Media Industry Association. They predicted the figure, if the current trend of ...

^