

Nov. 16, 2012, Daily News

Friday, 16 November 2012

Last Updated Friday, 16 November 2012

Portugal issues final report on digital switchover

IPTV News

With its digital switchover completed last April, a final report has been issued on Portugal's transition from analogue to digital television, with some key figures included on the number of subscribers held by the different pay-TV platforms. The ...

Internode offers $99 combo plans

ARNnet

Internode has launched three $99 combo plans that bundle four services including broadband, IPTV, mobile voice and a traditional telephone line. The combo deals each contain an Easy Broadband 200 ADSL2+ service, a NodeLine home telephone service, .

UTStarcom prepares for business after IPTV

FierceIPTV

Despite the growth of IPTV services worldwide and the consensus that things are going to get even better for that business, UTStarcom is happy with its decision to divest its IPTV business and is ready to move on as a broadband equipment player ...

Viaplay extends OTT service to PS3 consoles

IPTV News

Scandinavian over-the-top (OTT) video streaming service Viaplay is now available on Sony PlayStation 3 gaming consoles across the region, thanks to an app developed by Swedish firm Accedo. Viaplay's complete offering from a large number of local and ...

IZI Media selects Limelight to launch IPTV channel

Telecompaper (subscription)

Malaysia-based digital entertainment portal IZI Media has deployed Limelight Networks' Orchestrate Digital Presence Platform to support its Maxman.

Multimedia growth continues

Broadband TV News

Of these, 257,000 were for digital TV or IPTV, or 40% more than a year, while the total number of TV RGUs (revenue generating units) was up 160,000 ...

China Adds 53 Mln New DTV STB Users in 2012

Marbridge Consulting

The number of newly added DTV (including cable TV, satellite TV, terrestrial, and IPTV) set-top boxes (STB) in China is expected to reach 53 mln units in 2012, ...

#