

Nov. 19, 2012, Daily News

Monday, 19 November 2012

Last Updated Monday, 19 November 2012

Motorola delivers half-million STBs to Meo

Broadband TV News

Motorola has announced the delivery of its 500,000th IPTV set-top box to Portugal Telecom's Meo service. Deliveries commenced in 2008 with Meo now providing services to a total of 1.2 million subscribers. Meo is widely held to be a case study in best ...

Copaco to finally launch IPTV service

Rapid tv news

The Paraguayan telco Copaco is hoping to have an IPTV service ready in Paraguay by the end of this month, after a delay of almost a year. The company currently has 200 households connected to test mode. The service launch, originally scheduled for ...

Global Digital Media - Video and Television in a Smart Connected World

Sacramento Bee

The battle for the lounge room is heating up with all major TV manufacturers now shipping smart internet-connected TVs which provide an "app-like" interface to new IPTV content services through instant streaming. While penetration of these new TVs is ...

Viasat Makes New Channels Deal in Polish Market

World Screen

The three channels will continue to be available on other third-party cable and IPTV platforms in the country as well. Each of the services will begin to carry ...

Australia's Internode serves up quad-play bundle

FierceTelecom

Internode, an Australian competitive service provider that now operates as a subsidiary of iiNet, on Monday debuted three new quad-play service bundles offering consumers broadband, IPTV, wireless, and PSTN service for AUS 99 (USD 103) a month.

GO wins MaxMan.TV pitch

Malay Mail

TV IPTV channel, effective immediately. The two firms will work collaboratively to promote MaxMan.TV — with activities to include not only media relations, but ...

Freeview may get more HD channels soon

TrustedReviews

Would you welcome new HD channels on Freeview or do you think satellite, cable and IPTV are more efficient ways of delivering high-def TV? Discuss it on the ...

Microsoft Inks Deal with Telefonica - Analyst Blog

NASDAQ

Mediaroom is the latest version of the Microsoft IPTV Edition platform Software. The platform makes TV viewing more flexible in that programs may be accessed from TVs via set top boxes, as well as Microsoft-driven products such as Xbox360s, Windows PCs ...