

Nov. 28, 2012, Daily News

Wednesday, 28 November 2012

Last Updated Thursday, 29 November 2012

OKI and HTB Commence Joint Video Distribution Experiment in Compliance ...

The Herald | HeraldOnline.com

Effective October 1, 2012, the partners launched the experimental ITU IPTV IPv6 global testbed for content distribution created by HTB based on the LIME standard specification. This experiment will distribute IPTV content to organizations in various ...

IPTV roll-out obstacle as fibre fails to light up in mass numbers across Europe

Rapid tv news

Even though the European Union is half way towards its plan of making sure all its citizens can access superfast broadband at home by 2020, the roll-out of fibre that will support IPTV and other advanced video services is slow. According to the ...

BT Vision launches British Museum channel

DigitalTVEurope.net

UK telco BT has launched an on-demand channel featuring video content from the British Museum to its IPTV platform BT Vision. The channel will be available ...

ATF Spotlight: ITV Studios Global Entertainment

World Screen

... (ITVS GE) has seen sales for its finished programs grow in Southeast Asia recently, due in part to the launch of new channels and IPTV operators.

Managed IPTV, OTT to drive fixed broadband growth

TelecomTV (registration)

Consumer demand for managed IPTV and over-the-top content services will drive fixed broadband into 745m homes worldwide by 2017, according to a study ...

New Comcast IPTV set-top box hits the FCC, could be released next ...

The Verge

Products like Dish's Hopper and Joey are letting customers watch programming on multiple TVs without the need for full DVRs in every room, and a new set-top ...

Now TV rolls out on Roku

Broadcast

Sky has rolled out its IPTV service Now TV via Roku's internet connected set-top boxes. The £8.99 per month service, which offers around 600 films on-demand, ...