

Nov. 29, 2012, Daily News

Thursday, 29 November 2012

Last Updated Thursday, 29 November 2012

Quickflix sacks one third of workforce

Delimiter

news Ailing IPTV and online DVD rental business Quickflix has revealed plans to sack one third of its workforce and initiate a plethora of other restructuring ...

Korea's LG U+ goes multi-screen

IPTV News

South Korean telco LG U+ has launched a new multi-screen TV service called 'LG u+tv' offering linear and on-demand TV integrated with apps .

Comcast's IPTV box reportedly clears the FCC

FierceIPTV

Comcast (Nasdaq: CMCSA) apparently has a new IPTV set-top box design that's been cleared by the FCC. If released next year as part of the ...

OKI, HTB begin IPTV video distribution experiment

Rapid tv news

Japan's leading telecoms CE manufacturer OKI Electric has entered into a partnership with Hokkaido Television Broadcasting (HTB) to develop ...

IPTV grows in Poland

Broadband TV News

Poland's first independent IPTV platform has made its debut, with a second likely to follow in H1 next year. Known as Next Plus, the new ...

--

China Telecom IPTV STB Bid Prices Reach Record Lows

Marbridge Consulting

HK) today announced that bids in its 2012 IPTV set-top box (STB) tender for 3.54 mln SD STBs and 1.25 mln HD STBs have reached record ...

Research and Markets: IPTV Market Leader Report 2012 by Product ...

Business Wire (press release)

MRG's IPTV Market Leader Reports (MLR) identify which IPTV systems and software companies are leading each of the six IPTV market segments: access ...