

Dec. 3, 2012, Daily News

Monday, 03 December 2012

Last Updated Monday, 03 December 2012

To boldly Foxtel Go where customers will soon follow

iTWire

IPTV... the Final Frontier. These are the voyages of the iPad app Foxtel Go. Its continuing mission: to stream strange yet cool new shows, to seek out new lifestyle channels and new civilization reality shows, to boldly Foxtel Go one day to all devices ...

Russia's Rostelecom adds new Viasat HD package

IPTV News

Viasat Broadcasting has launched a new package of high-definition pay-TV channels on the IPTV service of Russian telco Rostelecom, offering Hollywood movies, comedies, history and nature programming. The new package is called 'Viasat Premium HD' ...

Batelco bases video on Oregan technology

Trade Arabia

UK-based Oregan Networks, a leading IPTV software and systems specialist, announced that Batelco, a top telecom operator and ISP in Bahrain, has based its broadband video service on Set Top Boxes, using Oregan's technology. Through the BlackBox ...

M:tel starts Open IPTV offer

Telecompaper (subscription)

Bosnian operator m:tel has launched a special offer, valid until 31 January 2013, for new subscribers of its Open IPTV packages. Subscribers pay a subscription ...

BH Telecom to add HD package to IPTV service

Telecompaper (subscription)

Bosnia's BH Telecom has announced it will add an HD channel package to its IPTV service Moja TV, from 1 January 2013. Moja TV HD will consist of seven ...

AsiaOne

Global IPTV subs surpass 65m

Advanced Television

The latest Worldwide IPTV Subscriber Market report from Research and Markets Ltd has found that the global IPTV subscriber market totaled around 65.7 million by the end of the first quarter of 2012, growing 34.5 per cent year-on-year. As IPTV ...

Different directions down under: Quickflix cutting staff; Telstra bulking up

FierceIPTV

IPTV is going in different directions for different Australian providers. IPTV and online DVD rental player Quickflix said it would slash one third of its workforce amid a series of restructuring moves that included the resignation of its chief ...