

Dec. 11, 2012, Daily News

Tuesday, 11 December 2012

Last Updated Tuesday, 11 December 2012

KPN taps Accenture for improved TV delivery

IPTV News

Dutch telco KPN has selected US consultancy Accenture to develop and maintain innovative television services for it based on the Accenture Video Solution, ...

FiOS reaches deal with AMC; Tulix adds IPTV billing system

FierceIPTV

French service provider SFR (owned by Vivendi) is dropping its IPTV service and adopting a partnership model. Story.

> Kansas telcos H&B communications and Mutual Telephone are using Innovative Systems' middleware on the APMAX platform for their ...

MegaFon targets 1.5 mln IPTV subscribers by 2015

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian mobile operator MegaFon will launch two new digital TV services this week, Vitaliy Starodubov, the CEO of R&D unit MegaLabs, told RBC Daily. MegaFon plans to start sales of digital TV set-top boxes for testing in North-Western Russia 15 December.

Magyar Telekom celebrates 300000 IPTV subs

DigitalTVEurope.net

Magyar's T-Home Interactive TV subscriber base passed the 300,000 mark at the start of December. The telco also said that its on-demand service Videotéka now registers 100,000 views per month. "Early this year we stated that 2012 would be the year of ...

Tailored services keep SK Telecom ahead in LTE race

ZDNet

Summary: Mobile content optimized for LTE networks, such as real-time baseball broadcast and mobile IPTV, helps South Korean telco differentiate from other operators and over-the-top service providers. Kevin Kwang. By Kevin Kwang | December 11, 2012 ...

Antik unveils first BitTorrent certified STB

Broadband TV News

With thanks to our partnership with BitTorrent we have made this special IPTV device in response to customers who record hi-def memories with their smartphones, digital SLRs and HD camcorders. The Juice Mini allows consumers to seamlessly play ...

Ericsson to enable global video platform for Telefonica Digital

MENAFN.COM

Within the Global Video Platform, several players are combining their different components such as IPTV middleware, OTT back-office, Digital Rights Management Systems and Content Management Systems to provide the best video experience to ...