

Jan 2, 2013, Daily News

Wednesday, 02 January 2013

Last Updated Thursday, 03 January 2013

Intel's IPTV dreams are hampered by haggling over content

Inquirer

Intel has been expected to get into the IPTV business by flogging chips in televisions and set-top boxes, however the firm is coming up against the content providers' desire to stick to antiquated licensing packages. According to the Wall Street ...

BH Telecom's IPTV service has 67000 users

Telecompaper (subscription)

Bosnia's BH Telecom has ended 2012 with 67,000 IPTV users, according to director Nedzad Residbegovic. Over the past year, Moja TV has added around ...

France 24 expands Danish DTT coverage

Broadband TV News

France 24 has also announced further distribution agreements with the IPTV ... In Thailand, France 24 is now available on IPTV operator ME TV in English and ...

Good Line adds new IPTV content for customers

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian regional ISP GoodLine is offering access to services from content provider Rutracker.org through set-top boxes of its Large TV pay-TV service, as well ...

Al Jazeera Is Buying Its Way Into Viewers' Homes With A Deal For Al ...

TechCrunch-by Ryan Lawler

The network is available in 60 million out of about 100 million U.S. homes with cable, satellite, or IPTV service. Al Jazeera, meanwhile, has had a difficult time ...

Apple must plant its flag in living room

Financial Times

For Apple, the dream scenario would be an exclusive deal to put its software into the set-top boxes of a big cable, satellite or IPTV company – much like the first ...

Global telco revenues exceed $2 trillion

iTWire-by Alex Zaharov-Reutt

Other segments with double-digit revenue growth over the next five years include public cloud, enterprise Ethernet, IPTV, and managed VoIP (voice over IP).

#