

Jan 18, 2013, Daily News

Friday, 18 January 2013

Last Updated Friday, 18 January 2013

Rostelecom refreshes IPTV tariff line
Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian national operator Rostelecom plans to refresh the tariff line of its IPTV services in Central Russia from 1 February. The size of packages and of their ...

Branstad pokes at potential Braley candidacy for governor
DesMoinesRegister.com

That, to me, sounds a lot like "Bring it on, Bruce." Iowa Press airs at 7:30 p.m. today and noon Sunday. You can also watch online later today at IPTV.org. Tweet ...

2013 to be a landmark year for 4K, says Deloitte
IPTV News

A large number of significant milestones will be passed in the development of Ultra High-Definition (Ultra HD, also known as 4K) television this year, according ...

US communications chief wants gigabit broadband in every state by ...
Pocket-lint.com

After all, if we can start moving people away from broadcast TV and on to IPTV then there's a lot of spare frequencies for mobile services. And if there are better ...

Jeff Kagan Wireless Analyst on Wireless Challenges on ...
DigitalJournal.com (press release)

He follows wireless, telecom Internet, cable television and IPTV and part of the wider consumer electronics and technology space. Visit his website: at ...

Mira TV to carry iTV Media IPTV, VoD services
Telecompaper (subscription)

Spanish OTT platform Mira TV will start carrying UTStarcom subsidiary iTV Media's IPTV and VoD services this month. iTV Media launched an OTT service last year under the iTV.cn brand to provide Mandarin language programming to Chinese communities ...

iTV Media taps UTStarcom firm Mira TV to deploy IPTV and VoD solutions
Telecom Lead

Telecom Lead Asia: iTV Media, an IP-based network solutions and service provider, will deploy its IPTV and video on demand (VOD) services in Spain in January 2013 through a partnership with UTStarcom firm Mira TV. UTStarcom invested in iTV Media in ...