

Jan 19, 2013, Daily News

Saturday, 19 January 2013

Last Updated Saturday, 19 January 2013

TOT's MeTV IPTV expands nationwide

TeleGeography

Thai state-owned telco TOT on 16 January 2013 announced the nationwide commercial launch of the 'MeTV' IPTV service, which was first launched in October 2012 over TOT's network in partnership with iTV Media, a part-owned subsidiary of Chinese ...

New Boutique Consulting Firm Firebird International Offers Direct ...

Marketwire (press release)

"A lot of the content now being demanded," says Goldstein, "is digital content, purchased by streaming and gradual download Web sites, IPTV networks, and ...

Saudi Mobily eyes further data growth as Q4 rises 11%

Zawya (registration)

Mobily is in the midst of launching IPTV services and offers fixed Internet services through its subsidiary Bayanat Al Oula. It aims to connect 500,000 homes with ...

NanoTech Entertainment (NTEK) Partners With EB2 Global ...

Melodika.net (press release)

With three business units, focusing on Gaming, Media & IPTV and Mobile Apps, the company has a unique business model. The company has a diverse portfolio ...

Two Chips Synthesize Up To 128 QAM Channels For Cable TV ...

Electronic Design

... Protocol television (IPTV). It gives cable service providers the bandwidth to handle future cable services while reducing capital and operational expenditures.

Guest opinion: Wireless revolution moves rural America forward

Billings Gazette

Diane Smith of Whitefish serves on the board of Mobile Future (mobilefuture.org) and was co-founder and chief executive officer of a ground-breaking IPTV and

Jeff Kagan Wireless Analyst Asks Will RIM Recover with Blackberry ...

DigitalJournal.com (press release)

He follows wireless, telecom Internet, cable television and IPTV and part of the wider consumer electronics and technology space. Visit his website: at ...