

Mar. 14 2006 Daily News

Tuesday, 14 March 2006

Changhong IPTV Wins Monetary Support From MII

ChinaTechNews.com - Beijing,China

Changhong's IPTV terminal equipment development and manufacturing programs have won RMB1 million in support from the Ministry of Information Industry (MI). ...

TV war as access hits 100Mbps/sec

VNUNet.com - Haarlem,Netherlands

... themselves. Both BT and NTL plan to offer IPTV services (TV delivered using the Internet Protocol) and they are far from alone.

...

A Look at IPTV

Slashdot - USA

Q-Tip writes "Ars Technica has posted an introduction to IPTV, which is the TV programming technology AT&T (and formerly BellSouth) will be using to provide TV ...

Licences required for IPTV

Australian - Australia

INTERNET service providers will be forced to apply for a broadcast licence for web-based TV services, known as IPTV, under a media discussion paper released by ...

AV International Issue 46 - March 14, 2006

AV Interactive - UK

EUROPE: 370m homes worldwide will have broadband access by 2010, and IPTV revenues in Europe could top $2bn by 2009, according to figures released on the first ...

European Telcos Must Develop IPTV Strategies Tailored to Local ...

Business Wire (press release) - San Francisco,CA,USA

CAMBRIDGE, England--(BUSINESS WIRE)--March 14, 2006--European telecoms operators must develop strategies tailored to local markets if IPTV - television over ...

Reeltime IPTV content available via Pipe Networks

iTWire - Australia

Reeltime has made its 'white label' IPTV services easily accessible to the 80 ISPs that use Pipe Networks' peering points who have between them some two ...

APS: Netcentrex Solutions Supports Tiscali DSL Network to .....

ANP Pers Support - Rijswijk,Netherlands

... "Although initial services will deliver voice. and Internet access, video and IPTV can be added to form a triple play offering. The VoIP.

ADB Group announces net profit of US$14.3 mil. for 2005

China Post - Taipei,Taiwan

... The group attributed its revenue growth particularly to demand for digital cable television and products relating to IPTV, a digital television service ...