

Jan 29, 2013, Daily News

Tuesday, 29 January 2013

Last Updated Tuesday, 29 January 2013

Japan to start 4K broadcasts in July 2014

IPTV News

Japan will start the world's first 4K (Ultra High-Definition) television broadcasts in July 2014 – two years ahead of schedule and in time for the football World Cup, ...

Viewers "want it all"

IPTV News

The majority (nearly 60%) of US consumers remain loyal to their TVs as their preferred screen to watch video, but also want their smartphones and tablets by ...

Amino pursuing set-top opportunities in Latin America

FierceIPTV

Vindicating the belief that IPTV is an international phenomenon, leading set-top box maker Amino Technologies is taking its IPTV set-top business ...

ThinkAnalytics Secures RDK License from Comcast

The Herald | HeraldOnline.com

... VOD and over-the-top, delivered through multiple platforms including the set-top box, Web, IPTV, tablet, mobile, and more. ThinkAnalytics' technology services ...

Verizon tacks on RSN fee; Japan sees 4k broadcasts starting in 2014

FierceIPTV

.... > Service providers with extensive HD lineups should be prepared for the next hurdle to happen as soon as next year, when Japan starts 4k transmissions.

Samsung, Verizon expand FiOS TV app

FierceIPTV

Samsung has expanded its Verizon (NYSE: VZ) FiOS TV app for smart TVs and Blu-ray players to include 75 channels and 25,000 FlexView on-demand moves ...

Wireless Analyst Jeff Kagan Comments on Apple and Google ...

Melodika.net (press release)

He primarily follows wireless, telecom, Internet, cable television and IPTV. Secondly he follows the wider and more general consumer electronics and ...