

Mar. 15 2006 Daily News

Wednesday, 15 March 2006

Last Updated Wednesday, 15 March 2006

Jazztel launches commercial IPTV

TeleGeography - Washington,D.C.,USA

Spanish telco Jazztel has launched its Jazztelia IPTV service across its whole network, according to business daily El Economista. ...

Analysts urge Euro IPTV to cater to locals

United Press International - USA

... company Analysys on Tuesday cautioned that Europe was a far more complex market than the United States, which is currently the driving force in IPTV development ...

Ringgold Telephone Company Selects Latens IPTV Conditional Access ...

TMCnet - USA

BELFAST, Northern Ireland --(Business Wire)-- March 15, 2006 -- Latens Systems, the leading provider of IPTV Conditional Access (CA), today announced that ...

The AT&T/BellSouth Merger And IPTV

Telecomweb - USA

AT&T's proposed acquisition of BellSouth (TelecomWeb news break, March 7) could lead to a much stronger force in the US IPTV market. ...

Tranzas Selects SecureMedia's Encrytonite System(R) to Provide ...

PR Newswire (press release) - New York,NY,USA

Encrytonite System to Be Integrated With Tranzas' IPTV Solution for Hospitality, Residential and Educational Markets NATICK, Mass., March 15 /PRNewswire ...

Hijacking the Internet

ABC News - USA

... be charged extra for making them. You can assume that IPTV traffic will be charged differently, too. One of the more shameful aspects

...

Australia considers licence for IPTV

Telecom Paper (subscription) - Houten, Netherlands

The government in Australia is considering requiring a licence for internet service providers wanting to offer web-based TV services, The Australian reports. ...

San Ramon, AT&T poised to sign IPTV agreement

San Jose Mercury News - CA, USA

... Project Lightspeed. AT&T says it does not need a cable franchise to do IPTV because AT&T is a regulated telephone company. Project
...