

Feb. 21, 2013, Daily News

Thursday, 21 February 2013

Last Updated Thursday, 21 February 2013

iiNet primed for growth after record H1 results

Technology Spectator-by Harrison Polites

... the first to launch NBN services across all technologies including fibre, satellite and wireless as well as multicast IPTV services over the NBN,” Mr Malone said.

Sky Sports News teams with MTG for international distribution

imediamonkey-by Jordan Howell

... Denmark, Norway and Finland through Viasat and its channel packages on third party cable TV platforms and IPTV networks, including online service, Viaplay ...

Thomson to focus on Full IP Headend and Multi-screen Solutions at ...

MediaMughals

The ViBE VS7000 video system is a breakthrough "anything in, anything out" encoding/transcoding platform for Web TV, over-the-top (OTT) services, IPTV, and ...

Mexico's Totalplay picks Envivio for IPTV, VOD services

Communications, Engineering & Design Magazine

Totalplay Telecomunicaciones, an IPTV service provider in Mexico, has deployed Envivio Muse encoders to provision its live and on-demand services. Totalplay Telecomunicaciones, which is a subsidiary of Grupo Salinas, wanted to extend its channel lineup ...

Frost & Sullivan Recognizes Microsoft for its Pioneering Digital ...

Einnews Portugal-37 minutes ago

A variant of PlayReady is used by Mediaroom, Microsoft's middleware offering for the IPTV market, which results in additional traction for PlayReady and ...

Freeview brings the fight to pay-TV

IPTV News

UK free-to-air DTT platform Freeview has unveiled a new marketing campaign that directly questions the value offered by pay-TV services in the country, at a ...

In Brief: Belgacom TV, VirginMedia/YouTube, Trace Sports, FTL

Broadband TV News

Belgacom TV is continuing to distribute ARD and ZDF on its IPTV network despite an earlier announcement it would remove the two German public channels as