

Mar. 14, 2013, Daily News

Thursday, 14 March 2013

Last Updated Friday, 15 March 2013

Hawaiian Telcom Q4 results driven by strong IPTV gains

FierceTelecom

Hawaiian Telcom (Nasdaq: HCOM) may not be the largest IPTV provider, but its effort to increase its service footprint paid off in Q4 and drove up its growing consumer segment 4 percent to $35 million. The telco said the "revenue increase in its ...

StarHub launches new IPTV service

Rapid tv news

Singaporean provider StarHub is to launch a new IPTV service, StarHub TV on Fibre, on 18 March. An IPTV pay-TV service, StarHub TV on Fibre offers businesses access to HD content and more than three times as many TV channels as the existing digital ...

Starhub launches new IPTV service for Singapore

IPTV News

Singaporean telco StarHub has confirmed plans to launch a new IPTV service called 'StarHub TV on Fibre' on March 18th, delivered over the country's Next Generation Nationwide Broadband Network (NGNBN). The service will initially be available only to ...

Foxtel's Play: IPTV For Multiple Devices

Gizmodo Australia

There's simply mention of it "expanding" on the existing IPTV solutions. Equally, it's not clear exactly how many devices you'll be able to authorise for Foxtel Play playback. It'll also include access to Foxtel Go package for mobile TV viewing ...

Foxtel dives into IPTV space

AdNews

Foxtel boss Richard Freudenstein said the company still intends to reach 50% of Australians, and will be helped along by the launch of IPTV and subscription on-demand movie services. Freudenstein revealed at the ASTRA Conference today Foxtel will ...

Eyepartner Offers Customized IPTV Installation for Products and Services

MarketWatch (press release)

MARATHON, Fla., March 14, 2013 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ -- Eyepartner offers customized installation for a wide variety of its IPTV products and services, including its TikiLIVE HD broadcaster, white-label set-top boxes, and NetUP DVB to IP Gateway 4X.

BT chooses thePlatform as management basis for IPTV, YouView

Rapid tv news

As it embarks on an expansion of its TV activities through its YouView offering and BT Vision IPTV service, the UK's incumbent telco has upgraded its service infrastructure with a cloud-based video management platform. Specifically, BT has selected the ...

