

April 2, 2013, Daily News

Tuesday, 02 April 2013

Last Updated Tuesday, 02 April 2013

HyppTV, first Malaysian IPTV wins award

Malay Mail

TELEKOM Malaysia Berhad (TM), through its IPTV service — HyppTV — created history by being the first Malaysian IPTV company to win an award at the prestigious TV Connect Industry Awards — previously known as IP&TV Industry awards — in Mayfair, ...

In-venue IPTV transmission projected to drive additional revenues for sports

FierceIPTV

Sports is big business--perhaps the biggest of all businesses in the video transmission space--and it can be even bigger and more profitable, according to Exterity, an IPTV communications solutions company, that is promoting "enterprise IPTV" as a ...

Verimatrix wins Mexican IPTV deal

IPTV News

Mexican telco AXTEL has chosen content protection technology from US firm Verimatrix to secure its new managed IPTV service, which combines linear and on-demand content with a network PVR, interactive content and free-to-air DTT channels. In addition ...

The case for Aereo: is the air really free and if so, who pays for what ...

FierceIPTV

Aereo continues to live a charmed life. Multichannel video programmer distributors (MVPDs) of all stripes--including, but not limited to cable, satellite and IPTV service providers--are paying increasingly higher fees to retransmit over-the-air ...

Aereo reportedly in talks with Dish, AT&T; 3DTV is not dead, says NPD

FierceIPTV

And finally … Pixel Power is refocusing from broadcast playout to IPTV with the launch of the Pixel OnDemand software-only package for on-screen promotions and creative graphics for IPTV channels. Story. Filed Under. 3DTV, Aereo, Freeview, liberty ...

Amino receives HD STBs order from KartinaTV

Telecompaper (subscription)

KartinaTV, an IPTV/OTT company which delivers TV content over the open internet to Russian-speaking communities, acquired set-top boxes from set-top box developer Amino for the broadcast of Russian television across its IPTV network.

Canada's Telus upgrades TV with Ericsson encoders

IPTV News

While last week's headlines were dominated by rumours that Ericsson plans to buy Microsoft's IPTV business, the Swedish vendor sealed a significant order for its video compression solutions with Canadian telco Telus. The telecoms operator has chosen ...