

May 2, 2013, Daily News

Thursday, 02 May 2013

Last Updated Friday, 03 May 2013

Astro upgraded on IPTV potential - The Star Online

The Star Online

Although the Maxis-Astro IPTV offering enjoys lower earnings before interest, tax, depreciation, and amortisation (EBITDA) margin compared to Time-Astro IPTV, synergistic benefits to be reaped from this collaboration should be more than enough to ...

The more the merrier in the IPTV market - The Star Online

The Star Online

The Maxis/Astro IPTV/broadband services were originally expected to be launched by end-2012 but were postponed to the end of the first quarter in 2013. Astro and Maxis entered into partnership for IPTV/broadband collaboration in September 2012.

Croatian telco to hike prices - Broadband TV News

Broadband TV News

Hrvatski Telekom (T-HT) and its sister company Iskon will be required to raise the prices of their internet and IPTV offers from June 1. According to local reports, this follows a decision of the regulator HAKOM, which argues that the two have

...

Espial Granted Patent For FCC - 4RFV

4RFV

8,286,217 by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. The patent covers technology that enables service providers to implement fast channel change (FCC) on set-top boxes and TVs powered by IPTV networks. Together with the current patent grant, Espial now ...

Mediaroom VP joins SeaWell board - Communications, Engineering and Design

Communications, Engineering & Design Magazine

“Thompson has deep expertise and understanding of the unique dynamics of IPTV, as well as the evolving market requirements giving rise to innovation in multiscreen.” “There has never been a more exciting and challenging time to be in the TV industry.

Bell Aliant's FTTH growth helps drive Q1 operating revenue to $679 million

FierceTelecom

IPTV: In tandem with the growth of FibreOP broadband data, IPTV revenue grew CAD 11 million (USD 10.9 million) in Q1 2013 year-over-year, reaching a total 137,300 customers at the end of March. It added 15,600 FibreOP TV customers in the quarter to ...

Bell Aliant posts $84M in Q1 net earnings, revenue up $2M to $684M

Winnipeg Free Press

It also added 14,250 net new IPTV customers in the quarter versus 7,874 in the same quarter last year. IPTV customers totalled 137,270 at the end of the quarter. Wireless revenues were up $2 million, or 6.1 per cent, to $28 million in the first quarter ...