

May 8, 2013, Daily News

Wednesday, 08 May 2013

Last Updated Wednesday, 08 May 2013

A whole new IPTV world for Seven West Media

B&T Marketing & Media

Seven West Media has signalled it will delve into the world of IPTV in the second quarter of next year, with CEO of broadcast TV Tim Worner describing Channel Seven as the "pumping heart" of the group. Share prices skyrocketed yesterday afternoon and ...

M:tel adds 30 Pink TV channels in Bosnia

Telecompaper (subscription)

M:tel has become the second operator in Bosnia and Herzegovina to add 30 channels from Serbian private broadcaster Pink TV to its IPTV platform. After BH Telecom's Moja TV, m:tel's Open IPTV service is providing the new channels to its subscribers ...

Telefónica launches Movistar TV

IPTV News

Spanish telco Telefónica has launched a new version of its IPTV service, called 'Movistar TV' and featuring a more innovative and user-friendly interface and expanded content lineup, along with TV Everywhere features. The new service replaces 'Movistar ...

Telefónica loses 50k Spanish TV subs

IPTV News

Spain's largest telco continues to lose pay-TV customers in its domestic market at a worrying rate, with 50k leaving in the first quarter of this year alone to reach 659k, although its Latin American operations helped partially rebalance these losses.

MTS releases Q1 results

Winnipeg Free Press

Revenue from wireless, high speed Internet and IPTV were all up offsetting declines in legacy services like land lines and long distance. "MTS Allstream's first-quarter results show that we continue to make progress on our strategy, with a 32 per cent ...

DT passes major TV milestones

IPTV News

Deutsche Telekom passed two major TV milestones in the first quarter of this year, reaching 2mn television subscribers in Germany and 3mn in Europe. The telco added 70k customers for its German TV services (delivered via IPTV and satellite) in the ...

Deutsche Telekom achieves over two million IPTV customers

Rapid tv news

Germany's national telco Deutsche Telekom has exceeded the mark of two million customers for its IPTV platform Entertain. On 31 March 2013 the offering had 2.036 million customers – up by 18% compared with the same period in 2012. In total, Telekom ...