

May 17, 2013, Daily News

Friday, 17 May 2013

Last Updated Friday, 17 May 2013

TalkTalk eyes BT Sport

Broadcast

TalkTalk, a shareholder in YouView along with BT, Arqiva and the terrestrial broadcasters, revealed it signed up 150,000 subscribers to the IPTV service in the ...

Residential gateways key to multiscreen video success

Rapid tv news

In its Residential Gateway Strategies: Global Service Provider Survey, the market research firm identified broadband data, IPTV, Wi-Fi, hotspot access and VoIP as the main applications operator respondents are currently offering using a residential ...

AT&T revamps U-verse VOD interface

Rapid tv news

AT&T is launching a new, media-rich U-verse On Demand storefront, to revamp the content discovery interface for the IPTV service's video-on-demand (VOD) offering. The freshened up features include a different interface with intuitive navigation that ...S&P warns India of downgrade; retains negative rating outlook

Chandigarh Tribune

... phones and broadband access through a fixed line, wireless broadband access, cable television, satellite television and IPTV (Internet Protocol television).

eircom launches national fiber network, targets 300000 premises to ...

FierceTelecom-by Sean Buckley

Besides data services, the telco is also trialing a new IPTV service, but has not given any firm date when it would be available. In addition to selling to consumers ...

Broadcom Can Maintain Its Leadership In The Set-Top Box Market

Trefis

It offers a wide range of solutions for key markets including video set top boxes (cable, satellite, IPTV) and residential broadband access. Broadcom exited the ...

Vodafone Allies with Deutsche Telekom - Analyst Blog - NASDAQ.com

NASDAQ

This will enable customers to receive connection speeds of up to 50 Mbps along with Vodafone's on-demand and broadcast IPTV services. The speed is expected to reach up to 100 Mbps, after Deutsche Telekom rolls out vectoring technology. The agreement ...